Louisiana Association of Crisis Negotiators Bylaws

Article I Name of the Organization

Louisiana Association of Crisis Negotiators herein referred to as LACN or Association.

Article II Objective

To serve as a conduit for law enforcement, correctional officers, dispatchers, and mental health professionals to network, train, and respond to crisis situations.

Article III Membership Classifications

- Section I. Active Member – Active membership is limited to current, and/or retired law enforcement officers, corrections officers, parole and probation officers, and criminal justice support personnel of municipal police departments, sheriff's offices, the State Attorney Generals Offices, and the Louisiana Department of Public Safety. This will also include federal, state, parish or local agencies having law enforcement jurisdiction and/or responsibilities in crisis incidents.
- Section II. Associate Member – Those persons not meeting the requirements for any other class of membership or from law enforcement agencies outside the State of Louisiana or employed in the educational or mental health field and not directly in a criminal justice support role are eligible for this class of membership. Associate members may not vote and may not hold office but may serve on special and service committees.
- Section III. Honorary Member – Those persons who have made significant contributions to the objectives of LACN. This membership is limited to those individuals who may have no incentive to obtain membership in any other category other than by virtue of their position or accomplishments. The Honorary member shall not vote or hold office in any capacity, except that they may serve as Ex Officio members of any committee. Eligibility for this category may only be initiated upon a recommendation by a member to the Review Committee. Honorary Member status must be approved by a majority vote of the Executive Board.
- Section IV. Founding Member – The founding members of LACN. Those persons who were instrumental in the founding of LACN. As a founding member, they will retain all benefits of an active member and shall be exempt from the payment of any Association dues for life or until the resignation of such member.
- Section V. Lifetime Member - Members of LACN, who have made significant contributions, by actions or deeds beyond the normal call of duty toward the successful attainment of the LACN objectives.
- A. This highest level of membership may be awarded only to those persons currently holding another category of membership in the Association.
 - B. This honor may only be bestowed upon a member by a nomination from the Executive Board, following a recommendation by a member of the Review Committee, in accordance with the requirements for this class as outlined in the bylaws. The subsequent approval of the nomination is by a majority vote of the quorum, as defined in Article VI Section 1. D, at the Annual Business Meeting.

Louisiana Association of Crisis Negotiators

Bylaws

- C. The title of Life Member, when bestowed, shall be in addition to the regular membership title of the member. They shall enjoy all of the privileges and benefits of their regular membership classification and shall be exempt from the payment of any Association dues for life or until the resignation of such member. The privileges of a Life Member shall be determined by the class of membership for which the member would otherwise qualify.
- D. The criteria for eligibility:
 - a. Membership with LACN for a minimum of five (5) years; and
 - b. Served at least five (5) years on the Executive Board or completed at least five (5) major accomplishments, which have contributed significantly towards meeting the needs of the Organization or a combination of both.
- E. This honor shall be bestowed in the following manner:
 - a. The nomination, accompanied by documentation of eligibility, shall be sent to the Executive Board no later than ninety (90) days prior to the commencement of the Annual Conference at which the nomination is to be considered.
 - b. Nominations for Life Membership may also be initiated by the unanimous vote of the Executive Board, no later than thirty (30) days prior to the commencement of the Annual Conference at which the nomination is to be considered.
 - c. The nomination shall be presented to the membership present at the Annual Association Conference, which shall make its decision by majority vote. A quorum, as defined in Article VI section 1. D, shall be required to call for a vote on the appointment which will be approved by majority vote.

Section VI. Membership Term

- A. Membership terms shall run from the beginning of the Annual Conference to the beginning of the following year's Annual Conference, regardless of when the member joins during that period (e.g., mid-year or from a basic training). Members whose term expires at the start of the conference shall not be counted toward a quorum, as defined in Article VI Section 1. D, or retain voting eligibility unless they renew prior to or at the conference."

Article V. Elections, Vacancies, and Removals

Section I. Elections

- A. Process and Procedures:
 1. Elections will be held during the general membership business meeting of the Association's annual conference.

Louisiana Association of Crisis Negotiators

Bylaws

2. Only members in good standing and present at the time of elections are permitted to cast a ballot. There will be no absentee ballots.
3. A member may vote for the candidates (one vote per member) to fill the Executive Board positions.
4. Members seeking a position on the Executive Board must be present at the time when elections are conducted, unless extenuating circumstances preclude it. Such circumstances must be approved by a majority of the current Executive Board in order to be excused from this provision. In the event a candidate for an Executive Board position is not present and/or the absence is not excused by the Executive Board, then the candidate will be disqualified.
5. Elections will be conducted by secret ballot. One blank, color-coded, and numbered ballot will be supplied to each active member present at the general membership business meeting of the Association's annual conference, prior to voting for each elected position.
 - a. The colors for each position will be decided by the election committee and will be documented and stored with the ballots by the Sergeant at Arms.
6. Each position will be voted on separately in the following order:
 - a. Vice President;
 - b. Secretary;
 - c. Treasurer; and
 - d. Sergeant at Arms
7. Ballots which are not properly completed (i.e. someone votes for more than one person) shall make that ballot null and void.
8. Once ballots are cast, the ballots will be tabulated by a committee, to include all Past Presidents present at the annual conference or any designee appointed by the current President, excluding those who are running for office. Ballot election results will remain confidential until released at the time designated by the current President.
9. Once the ballots are tabulated, they will be secured by the Association Secretary until validated by the Executive Board.
10. The ballots will be retained by the Sergeant at Arms for a period of six (6) months from the closing date, following the conference.
11. Any protest or challenge of the election results must be submitted in writing, to the Secretary, by the aggrieved party, no later than thirty (30) days after the closing of the annual conference.
 - a. Contested results will be resolved by the Executive Board of Directors at the first quarterly meeting after the grievance is filed.
 - b. The aggrieved party may elect to be present at the meeting and during the validation process.

Louisiana Association of Crisis Negotiators

Bylaws

- c. Once the Executive Board arrives at a decision, the President will notify the aggrieved party in writing, within thirty (30) calendar days.
- 12. In the event of a tie vote, the voting members of the Executive Board and President will serve as a tiebreaker and appoint the candidate. If one of the candidates is a member of the Executive Board, that member will be excluded from having a vote in the tie breaker and the most recent Past President shall vote in their stead.
- 13. In the event there is no qualifying candidate for a position, an exception may be made to the listed qualifications for the position with a simple majority vote of the membership present at the current election.
- 14. In the event a Vice President is unable to succeed into the role of the President, the outgoing President shall continue to serve as President and appoint a parliamentarian. Such appointments are subject to confirmation by a majority vote of the Executive Board

Section II. Candidacy Procedures

- A. Declaration
 - 1. Candidates for the Executive Board, e.g. Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Sergeant at Arms, shall submit a declaration of their candidacy, in writing, to the Secretary, by the end of the regularly scheduled session the day prior to the business meeting, in the year they are seeking election.
 - 2. All vetted candidates will be given the opportunity, during the business meeting, prior to the election, to address the membership, to provide a brief bio and why they wish to hold a position on the Executive Board.
- B. Nominations
 - 1. Candidates for the Executive Board, e.g. Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Sergeant at Arms, shall be nominated by an active member and then seconded by another active member, during the annual conference, provided the candidates meet the requirements for office.
 - 2. Two Members in good standing shall nominate a candidate and shall provide the Review Committee (Nomination Committee) with the candidates' name, agency, and true signature accepting the nomination.
- C. Eligibility
 - 1. President - Candidates for President shall meet or exceed the minimum qualifications listed below. A candidate for President shall have served at least two (2) years as the Vice President. A committee appointed by the (current) President shall evaluate the qualifications of each candidate and shall validate compliance with these requirements to the quorum, as defined in Article VI Section 1. D.

Louisiana Association of Crisis Negotiators

Bylaws

2. The Criteria for eligibility for all Executive Board positions except the President are as follows:
 - a. Membership with LACN for a minimum of two (2) years; and
 - b. Serve as a Regional Director, committee member or completed at least three (3) accomplishments which have contributed significantly towards meeting the needs of the Organization, as determined by the Executive Board; or a combination of both.
 3. In lieu of the previously cited qualifications, candidates must meet all of the following alternate requirements for Executive Board candidacy, excluding the office of President.
 - a. The candidate must be an active or lifetime member of the Association in good standing.
 - b. The candidate must have cumulative experience as a negotiator for a minimum of seven (7) years.
 - c. The candidate must be a current or retired member of a law enforcement agency, dispatcher, corrections facility, probation and parole, criminal justice system, Louisiana Department of Public Safety, and/or the Louisiana State Attorney General's Office.
 - d. The candidate must have completed a forty (40) hour basic negotiators' course.
 - e. The candidate must have attended a minimum of three (3) LACN Annual Conferences.
- D. Desired Qualifications, but not required:
1. Previous Board Experience
 2. Administrative experience, especially with budget management;
 3. Leadership training; and
 4. Mental health training or experience.

Section III. Terms of Office

- A. Term Limits
1. President and Vice President are limited to one (1) two-year term due to progression from Vice President to President and President to Past President.
 2. Additional members of the Executive Board shall serve no more than three (3) consecutive terms of two (2) consecutive years (6 years consecutive) in the same position in office from the time of installation in office until their successors are installed in office, unless they officially resign in writing or are suspended or removed from office.

Louisiana Association of Crisis Negotiators

Bylaws

B. Emergency Appointments

1. Officers shall be installed in office during the Association's annual conference unless exigent or extenuating circumstances exist.
2. Officers appointed under this emergency provision of the bylaws shall serve the remaining time in office of the unfulfilled term or until a new election can be held.

Section IV. Vacancies

A. Order of Succession

1. A vacancy in the office of the President shall be filled by the advancement in office of the Vice President. Such advancement in office shall be in an "interim" capacity only and will continue until the next regular election of officers.
2. A vacancy in any other office shall be filled by an appointment made by the President and shall be subject to confirmation by a simple majority of the remaining members of the Executive Board. The newly appointed board member shall serve the remainder of the term in an interim capacity.

B. Authority and Privileges

1. Once appointed, the "interim" board member assumes all duties, responsibilities, and privileges the position holds.
2. Officers who were either advanced in office due to a vacancy or appointed by the President, may declare their candidacy for the office in which they are "appointed" at the next regular elections of officers. If elected, they shall be eligible to serve a full term in office.
 - a. Any "interim" term served by a board member does not count toward the three (3) year term limit.

Section V. Removal / Suspension from Office

A. Cause of Removal

1. The President, Vice President, or any other member, holding an elected or appointed position of the Association may be removed from office only for reason of malfeasance of duty, misfeasance of duty, nonfeasance of duty, for being arrested, or for committing an act that brings significant discredit to the Association or the officers.

Article VI General Operations

Section I. Meetings

A. Board Meetings

1. Regular board meetings of the LACN shall be held once each quarter in a manner and/or location as prescribed by the President. Meetings shall be held at host agencies or any other suitable location.

Louisiana Association of Crisis Negotiators

Bylaws

2. Board meetings may be conducted in a virtual setting (e.g., via video or audio conference) if authorized by the President, provided that all participants can simultaneously hear and speak to each other, and reasonable notice is given.

B. General Membership Meetings

1. One regular annual statewide meeting shall be scheduled each year and will be open to all members. Dates and locations of the annual meetings shall be determined by the Executive Board. The meeting will include, but not be limited to, Association business matters, training, equipment demos, and technique updates, whenever possible, utilizing exceptional or qualified instructors or practitioners and experts in the field of crisis management and/or intervention.

C. Special Meetings or Conditions

1. Special called meetings of the Association may be held in cases of serious emergency and shall be called by the President, at a time and place designated by the President, or upon the request of the Executive Board, or from twenty (20) individual active members.
3. Unless otherwise required by the bylaws, a majority vote of members present after a quorum, as defined in Article VI Section I D, is established, is all that is necessary for approval of matters coming before the Association.

D. Quorum

1. A quorum for general membership meetings, including the Annual Business Meeting and elections, shall consist of at least 20% of active members in good standing or 10 active members, whichever is greater.
2. A quorum for Executive Board meetings shall consist of a majority of voting members of the Executive Board.
3. No business shall be transacted without a quorum present.

Section II. Overview of Committees

A. Designations/Authority

1. The following committees are designated as standing committees:
 - a. Review Committee, and
 - b. Training Committee
2. Other committees may be established and disbanded as deemed necessary and as directed by the President.
3. Unless otherwise stated in the bylaws, the director of each committee shall be appointed by the President and serve at the President's pleasure. Such appointments are subject to confirmation by a majority vote of the Executive Board.

Section III. Review Committee

A. Composition

1. The Review Committee shall be composed of the Past President and Regional Directors.
2. The Past President or designee of the President shall chair the committee.

Louisiana Association of Crisis Negotiators

 - a. To coordinate and provide credible training to the members of the association.
 - b. To perform any other training duties as directed by the President.

Section V. Amendment of Bylaws

A. Bylaws

1. A suggestion to amend the bylaws of this Association shall be accomplished by submitting a resolution, in writing, to the President.

B. Resolutions (Defined)

1. A resolution is a written suggestion for the purpose of creating an amendment to the bylaws.

Louisiana Association of Crisis Negotiators

Bylaws

C. Resolutions (Process)

1. Every resolution involving amendments to the bylaws, shall be in writing to the President who will present them to the review committee.
2. The review committee shall then vote on each resolution to be presented to a quorum, as defined in Article VI Section I. D, of the Executive Board.
3. The Executive Board shall have the authority to either:
 - a. Vote to present each individual line item of the resolution to the membership at conference for a vote
 - b. Decline to present each individual line item of the resolution, all or in part, or
 - c. Table the decision.
4. A simple majority vote is required to pass the resolution to be presented for amendment consideration.
5. Once a resolution (all or in part) is approved by the Executive Board, the President shall have the Secretary post the approved proposed changes on the Association's website or by any other manner as prescribed by the Executive Board, at least thirty (30) days prior to the annual conference.
6. The posted approved changes will be presented to the membership at the business meeting for a vote during the annual conference.
7. A simple majority of members attending the conference is required to amend the bylaws.

D. Effective Dates of Amendments and Resolutions

1. All amendments and/or resolutions passed and adopted by this Association, in accordance with the rules set forth in the bylaws, shall be in force and effective upon the adjournment of the conference wherein considered and adopted, provided an exception to this effect is not otherwise contained in the language of the amendment or resolution itself.

Section VI. Rules of Order

A. Parliamentary Procedures

1. The Rules of Order of the Association shall be Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised (current edition).
2. In all instances that are not covered by the bylaws and for election purposes, Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised (current edition) shall prevail.
